

Rosette is a Transformational Leadership Coach, Behaviour Analyst and Speaker with The Maxwell Certified Leadership Team. In March 2023, she was the recipient of the Nurturing Transformation Award the Maxwell DNA Cultural Awards. This award is given to Coaches in the Maxwell Certified Leadership Team who exemplify the DNA of the Group. Currently the group has 53,385 Members in 160 Countries.

As a Coach, she believes everyone has potential for personal development. She also knows that “action is what will produce your desired results”. She encourages her clients to take steps and not leaps to their desired destinations. Rosette uses clear and direct ways of communication which has served to push her clients to achieving their full potential.

Rosette knows that she cannot give her clients what she does not have. She therefore ensures that she invests in her own personal development. Currently, she is a member of the Successful Woman’s Academy which is a group coaching for women run by Valorie Burton. In addition, she is constantly digging into literature to ensure that she is a better asset to her clients.

As a Mentor, Rosette aims at building relationships with her mentees by sharing personal stories of both her successes and failures and drawing lessons for her mentees to apply and flourish. She believes that her spiritual gift is encouraging and therefore her life purpose is “encourage people to fulfil their callings and purposes and embrace their God given gifts”. She fulfils this purpose through coaching, speaking, training and sharing her gifts and resources.

Rosette has qualifications in Law, Business Administration and Human Resource Management and Development. She runs her Coaching, Training and Speaking business under her brand The Fulfilled Life Network. <https://fulfilledlifefnetwork.com/work-with-me/>

She started her career in one of the top law firms in Kampala, Uganda, before moving into the corporate world in a multinational oil company. Her desire to stay with her then young family led her to leave her corporate job and follow her husband who had got an international job. She writes about this and more in her book, The Expatriate Wife: Did Relinquishing My Career Mean Losing My Identity?

Rosette co-founded the Africa Women Leadership Summit (www.awlsummit.com) which is an annual event that brings together women professionals and entrepreneurs to discuss pertinent leadership topics and network.

Having navigated the waters of being a woman in a corporate suit, as well as raising and serving her family as a work at home mother, her life message is that we all need to work on our inner being so that we can be bigger on the inside than the outside and live according to our own definitions of success.
